

PRIVACY POLICY

We will request and use information from users (1) only as reasonably necessary for the limited purpose described in our lead forms and (2) in accordance with our privacy policy and any additional disclosures that we include in our lead forms.

We will not sell the information provided by users or otherwise abuse that information (for example, by spamming users with repeated phone calls or emails).

We will provide users with clear and comprehensive information about data collection and processing, including any sharing of users' information with third parties, and obtain consent for that collection and processing where legally required.